

Proposed Graduate Course Offerings

Fall 2008

203A	American Government: Presidency	Boydstun
210	Research Design	Hill
211	Research Methods I	Joyce
214A	Advanced Research Design I	Scheiner
219B	Modern Political Theory: Rousseau	Scott
220	Core Seminar in Political Theory	Scott
290A	Campaigns and Elections	Boudreau
290C	Trade Policy	Kono
290F	Comparative Democratization	Andrews

Winter 2009

203B	American Government: Congress	Engstrom
212	Research Methods II	Huckfeldt
214B	Advanced Research Design II	Scheiner
215	Introductory Game Theory	Boudreau
219A	Ancient Political Theory	Peterman
223	Core Seminar in International Relations	Nincic
225	The International System	Gartner
242	Core Seminar in Comparative Politics	Jackman
261	Political Behavior	TBA
274	Comparative Political Economy	Montinola
279	Political Networks: Methods & Applications	Maoz

Spring 2009

209	American Political Systems	Stone
213	Research Methods III	Jones
218	Topics in Political Theory: Utilitarianism	Taylor
282	Advanced Modeling of Political Behavior	Joyce
290A	Research in American Government	Highton
290F	Research in Comparative Politics	Adams
290G	Research in Quantitative Methodology	Jones

Please Note: These are proposed courses.
Instructors and/or course offerings are subject to change at any time and without notice!